Universiti Poly-Tech Malaysia (UPTM) is dedicated to providing quality education and promoting academic excellence, with a strong focus on inclusivity and student development. Nearly 57% of UPTM students come from the B40 socio-economic group, making their success essential for achieving Sustainable Development Goal 1: No Poverty. The university provides financial assistance, scholarships, and support services to help these students break the cycle of poverty. UPTM also serves the M40 group, which comprises 30% of students, and the T20 group (13%), ensuring support across all socio-economic levels. In addition to on-campus support, UPTM collaborates with local communities on anti-poverty initiatives, organizing outreach, skills training, and employment opportunities to empower vulnerable populations and foster sustainable livelihoods.

UPTM has launched many programs aimed at fighting poverty, offering students and communities opportunities to learn new skills and improve their lives. Among the activities within the initiative are:

University anti-poverty programmes

RAHMAH CENTER (FOOD BANK)

UPTM Community HUB was launched on 19 May 2023 by YBhg. Dato' Zulfikri bin Osman as Deputy Director General of MARA (Entrepreneurship). There are three hubs under Community Hub, namely One Stop Centre, Rahmah Center (Food Bank), and Entrepreneur Centre. The Rahmah Centre plays a crucial role at the university by providing food assistance to students facing financial difficulties or food insecurity. This program aims to have a long-term impact by fulfilling basic needs to alleviate the financial burden of students housed in the Community HUB rooms. The objective of this program is to implement the concept of "give if you can, take if you need".

The Rahmah Centre also contributes to student well-being by providing access to quality food such as daily necessities for needy students, offering immediate food assistance like porridge, rice, sugar, eggs, sardines, biscuits, and more. This helps alleviate financial pressures and allows students to focus on their studies. The university's Rahmah Centre can also serve as a platform to raise awareness about financial difficulties among students, creating a more inclusive campus environment. Overall, the Rahmah Centre at the university provides crucial support to students facing financial challenges or food insecurity while promoting humanitarian values and social awareness within the campus community.

At the Rahmah Centre of Universiti Poly-Tech Malaysia (UPTM), activities conducted are similar to those at food banks elsewhere, but with a focus on the student population. These activities primarily involve food distribution, providing meals to students in need.

FREE MEAL PROGRAM

The Food Distribution Program for 150 Asnaf students will take place every Monday and Wednesday for one year (2 Mei 2023 - 30 April 2024), provided by suppliers appointed by Majlis Agama Islam Wilayah Persekutuan (MAIWP).

EDUCATION FINANCING

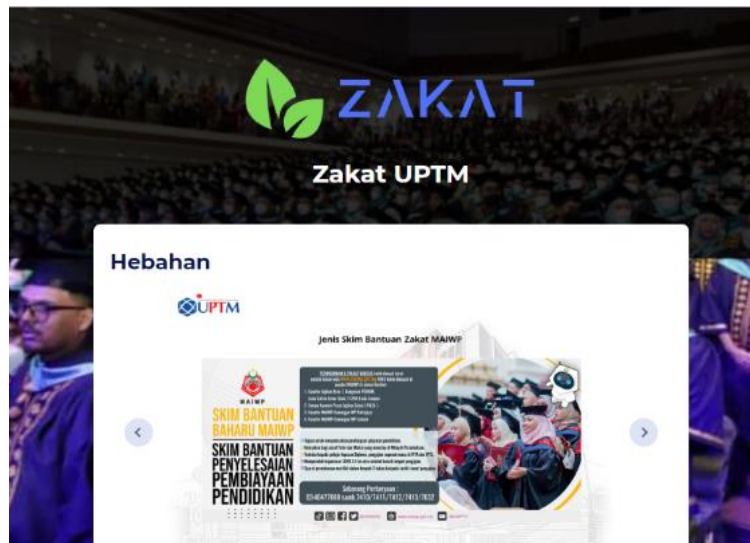

Majlis Amanah Rakyat (MARA) provides Education Loan facilities to eligible Bumiputera students to continue their studies. More than 70% UPTM students funded by MARA reflects an important effort to support students from lower-income backgrounds, directly contributing to SDG 1 - No Poverty. By providing financial aid, MARA helps to reduce the financial barriers to education, which is crucial for lifting individuals out of poverty and promoting social mobility. This distribution highlights the importance of continued financial support for vulnerable groups to ensure that they have equal opportunities for education, ultimately contributing to poverty reduction.

National Higher Education Fund Corporation (PTPTN) Education Loan Scheme was established for the purpose of providing educational loans to students pursuing studies at local Higher Education Institutions (IPT). This education loan will allow students to finance all or part of their tuition fees and living expenses throughout their period of study. The PTPTN education loan facility is open to students continuing their studies at local Public Higher Education Institutions (IPTA) and Private Higher Education Institutions (IPTS) only.

ZAKAT UPTM

A zakat institution is an organization established to create a system that systematically manages zakat assets in carrying out the activities of collecting and distributing zakat funds to eligible recipients (Asnaf). In Malaysia, there are 14 zakat institutions that have been established, representing 13 states, and 3 of them in the Federal Territories are managed by one zakat institution.

The Zakat Committee was established to assist students who are less fortunate and selected to receive zakat aid. This initiative is a key agenda in ensuring the welfare governance of UPTM students is well-maintained and prioritized, while also supporting SDG 1 – No Poverty. We hope that this zakat contribution will benefit the selected students by meeting their financial needs for their studies at UPTM, thereby contributing to the goal of reducing poverty.

AZKA-PPZ CORNER @ UPTM

AZKA-PPZ Corner @ UPTM was launched on Monday, 13th February 2023, at the Al-Khawarizmi Main Library, Universiti Poly-Tech Malaysia. The Azka-PPZ Corner was a joint initiative between the Zakat Collection Center (PPZ) of the Federal Territories Islamic Religious Council (MAIWP) and Universiti Poly-Tech Malaysia, aimed at providing zakat information resources to the UPTM community. Through this collaboration, 160 books and magazines of various genres and academic disciplines were donated for the corner's use.

The ceremony was officiated by YBhg Tuan Haji Abdul Hakim bin Amir Osman, Chief Executive Officer of PPZ MAIWP, and YBhg Prof. Dr. Abdul Rahim bin Abdul Rahman, Vice-Chancellor of UPTM. Also, in attendance were YBhg Tuan Haji Ramli bin Mohd Jawi, Deputy President of Student Affairs, representing the Acting Chief Executive Officer of KPTM Headquarters, along with members of the KPTM Headquarters Management, UPTM, and the Zakat Collection Center. UPTM extended its deepest gratitude to PPZ for this noble effort, and it was hoped that it would benefit the entire UPTM community and the public.

WAKAF KPTM

Wakaf is a form of charity in Islam where wealth is given to specific recipients with a defined intention, intended to provide ongoing support for necessities, facilities, and economic development. Wakaf collections at KPTM will involve cash endowments from donors including KPTM & UPTM community members, KPTM & UPTM alumni, government and private organizations, and the public.

Kolej Poly-Tech MARA (KPTM) has been approved to manage an Education Endowment (Wakaf Pendidikan) by the Federal Territory Islamic Religious Council (MAIWP) since November 8, 2018. This initiative aims to raise funds to provide necessities and facilities for needy students and staff, and to support educational programs based on Islamic Shariah principles at KPTM.

INCENTIVE

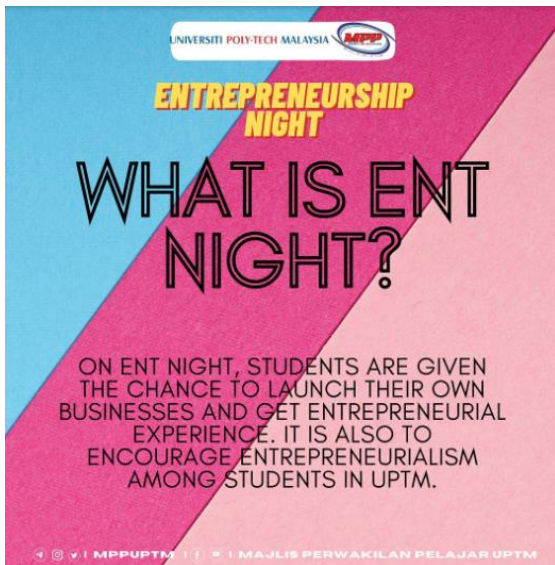

UPTM provides various incentives to eligible students aligns with SDG 1 - No Poverty. By offering support and resources, UPTM helps students from lower-income backgrounds, including those in the asnaf category, overcome financial barriers to education. This assistance can improve their chances of graduating and achieving better economic stability, directly contributing to the goal of reducing poverty. Supporting these students helps ensure that educational opportunities are accessible to all, regardless of economic status, which is a key aspect of combating poverty.

Sustainable Development Goal 5 (SDG 5) aims to achieve gender equality and empower all women and girls. Gender equality is not only a fundamental human right but also a necessary foundation for a peaceful, prosperous, and sustainable world. UPTM consistently supports the empowerment of women, as demonstrated by the appointment of women to leadership positions.

In 2023, Associate Professor Ts. Dr. Zahrah Binti Yahya was appointed as Acting President of UPTM after Kolej Universiti Poly-Tech MARA was upgraded to a full-fledged university, Universiti Poly-Tech Malaysia, on 6 January 2023.

Prof. Zahrah Yahya, currently a Professor at Universiti Poly-Tech Malaysia (UPTM), earned her Doctor of Philosophy in Computer Science in 2016. She currently serves as the Deputy Vice Chancellor Academic and Internationalization at UPTM.

From January 15, 2024, until now, UPTM has appointed another remarkable woman, Associate Professor Dr. Sharifah Syahirah Bt Sy Sheikh, as the new President of UPTM. This reflects UPTM's strong commitment to empowering women in top management roles.

UPTM is confident that the participation of women in top management significantly enhances the university's competitiveness and sustainability, as evidenced by the fact that women occupy 57% of the top management positions.

In 2023, 65% of UPTM's enrolled students were female, reflecting the institution's support for SDG 5: Gender Equality. The strong female application and acceptance rates demonstrate UPTM's efforts to empower women through education, offering equal chances for them to enter and thrive in their chosen fields of study.

Universiti Poly-Tech Malaysia (UPTM) students are actively involved in activities related to SDG 5. The following are some of the activities in 2023. These activities aimed to promote gender equality by encouraging female students to pursue further studies and explore higher education opportunities, empowering them to reach their full potential.

Universiti Poly-Tech Malaysia (UPTM)'s initiative to provide clean water is a multifaceted approach that aligns directly with SDG 6: Clean Water and Sanitation. By ensuring access to clean water, promoting health and hygiene, educating the community, implementing sustainable practices, engaging with the local community, and monitoring progress, UPTM not only enhances the quality of life for its immediate community but also contributes to the global movement towards achieving the Sustainable Development Goals. This commitment reflects a broader vision of sustainability and social responsibility that can have lasting impacts on future generations.

1. Access to Clean Water

- Basic Human Right: Access to clean water is recognized as a fundamental human right essential for survival, health, and dignity. By ensuring that all staff, students, and visitors have access to clean water, UPTM upholds this right, contributing to the broader goal of equitable access to resources.
- Availability: The provision of clean water on campus demonstrates UPTM's commitment to making clean water readily available. This is especially important in educational settings where students spend considerable time, enhancing their ability to focus on learning and personal development without the distraction of health issues related to water quality. UPTM provides nearly 18 units of filtered water supply around the campus to ensure a comprehensive supply of clean water.

2. Health and Hygiene

- Disease Prevention: Clean water is crucial for preventing waterborne diseases such as cholera, dysentery, and typhoid. By providing safe drinking water, UPTM plays a pivotal role in safeguarding the health of its community, thereby reducing healthcare costs and improving productivity.
- Promoting Hygiene Practices: In addition to drinking water, access to clean water for handwashing and sanitation facilities can significantly improve hygiene practices. UPTM can implement campaigns that educate students about the importance of handwashing, especially in preventing the spread of infectious diseases. UPTM provides sanitary disposal units containing antimicrobial disinfectant in every woman's restroom to ensure the personal hygiene of every woman is maintained.

Universiti Poly-Tech Malaysia (UPTM) is dedicated to supporting Sustainable Development Goal 7 (SDG 7): Affordable and Clean Energy, as evidenced by its initiatives like the Electric Vehicle (EV) Bus Program.

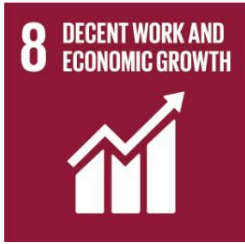

The paper "Examining the Relationship of Environmental and Community Well-Being Towards Sustainability of Electric Vehicles (EV) Bus Program" was presented at the 6th International Conference on Clean Energy and Technology 2023. Authored by a team from Universiti Poly-Tech Malaysia (UPTM) and Majlis Amanah Rakyat (MARA), the study investigates the interplay between environmental factors, community well-being, and the sustainability of the EV Bus Program.

The primary objective of this program is to evaluate its environmental impact, community well-being, and financial sustainability. Recent research on this program involved the collection of 117 questionnaires, highlighting key insights into the program's effectiveness.

The study identified a positive and robust correlation between sustainability considerations and environmental impact, underscoring the importance of integrating sustainable practices into energy solutions. Additionally, it revealed a strong link between community well-being and sustainability, suggesting that the adoption of EVs not only contributes to a cleaner environment but also enhances the quality of life for the community. Furthermore, the research found significant correlations between sustainability and financial aspects, reinforcing that sustainable energy solutions can be economically viable.

Through these findings, UPTM demonstrates its commitment to clean energy by emphasizing the sustainability of the Electric Vehicle Bus Program. By fostering awareness of these critical factors, UPTM aims to create a holistic approach to energy use that benefits the environment and the community while aligning with the broader goals of affordable and clean energy for all.

Universiti Poly-Tech Malaysia (UPTM) is committed to advancing Sustainable Development Goal 8 (SDG 8): Decent Work and Economic Growth. The university creates an environment that promotes inclusive economic development, productive employment, and decent work.

Through initiatives like graduate employability programs, internships, and partnerships with various industries, UPTM bridges the gap between academic learning and real-world application. By prioritizing decent work opportunities and a culture of lifelong learning, UPTM empowers students and the broader community, reinforcing its commitment to a prosperous future aligned with SDG 8.

The knowledge-sharing session and prototype demonstration for the internal research grant at UPTM, led by Pn. Siti Robaya Jantan alongside her team members Pn. Ts. Anis Juanita, Pn. Nurshafinas, and Cik Noornajwa, as well as freelance developer En. Amirul Asri, took place today. Traditionally, in most Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) in Malaysia, class attendance recording is typically done using pen and paper or through a simple web-based system. However, this method is time-consuming, involves cumbersome workflows, and makes it difficult to conduct regular monitoring. To address the identified weaknesses, this research aims to develop the UPTM Smart Class Attendance & Monitoring System to assist lecturers in effectively recording, managing, and monitoring student attendance and class schedules. Therefore, a pilot testing session will be conducted during the 0423 academic session, involving lecturers and students from FCOM, to identify weaknesses for the purpose of system improvement.

In 2023, UPTM lecturers produced 21 publications related to SDG 9 (Industry, Innovation, and Infrastructure). The Research Management Centre (RMC) at UPTM managed the following list of papers, articles, and conferences:

The Constitution of Universiti Poly-Tech Malaysia (UPTM) is governed under the Private Higher Educational Institutions Act 1996 (Act 555), which mandates inclusivity in university membership—ensuring that all roles, whether as an officer, employee, teacher, or student, are accessible to everyone, regardless of gender, race, religion, nationality, or social class. This commitment directly aligns with SDG 10 (Reduced Inequalities) by promoting equal opportunities and eliminating discrimination in education and employment, fostering a diverse and inclusive academic environment. Through this framework, UPTM contributes to reducing inequalities and supports fair access to quality higher education for all.

Here are some of UPTM's efforts to align with SDG 10 (Reduced Inequalities):

1. Inclusive Admission and Employment Policies: UPTM adheres to the Private Higher Educational Institutions Act 1996, ensuring access to education and employment at the university regardless of gender, race, religion, nationality, or socioeconomic background.
2. Support for B40 Students: With 57% of UPTM's students coming from the B40 group (lower-income group), the university emphasizes financial aid, scholarships, and support services to promote social mobility and equal opportunities for students from economically disadvantaged backgrounds.
3. Community Engagement Programs: Through partnerships with local communities and industries, UPTM offers outreach and educational programs that empower underserved populations, aligning with SDG 10's aim to reduce inequalities within and among communities.
4. Graduate Employability and Career Talks: UPTM organizes events and programs like the "Graduate Employability and Career Talk" to support students' career development, particularly focusing on underrepresented groups and preparing them for the workforce.
5. Female Empowerment Programs: Initiatives such as "Unleash Your Potential Beyond Limit" are tailored to encourage women to pursue higher education, further studies, and career advancement, supporting gender equality and social inclusion.
6. Provision of Clean Water: By providing clean water to all students, staff, and visitors, UPTM ensures that everyone has access to basic necessities, promoting equality in health and well-being within the university environment.
7. No-Smoking Policy: UPTM's no-smoking policy fosters a healthy campus environment, ensuring that all members have equal access to a safe and health-conscious space, supporting the well-being of everyone on campus.

These initiatives collectively demonstrate UPTM's commitment to reducing inequalities, fostering inclusivity, and supporting equitable access to resources and opportunities.

Universiti Poly-Tech Malaysia (UPTM) is dedicated to advancing sustainable development through various initiatives that align with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goal 11 (SDG 11), which focuses on fostering sustainable cities and communities. UPTM's efforts aim to create inclusive, safe, resilient, and sustainable environments for all members of the university and the surrounding community. By providing clean water access, implementing a no-smoking policy, and engaging in community outreach programs, UPTM promotes health and well-being while enhancing the quality of life. The university's commitment to supporting underprivileged groups, particularly the B40 students, emphasizes social equity and inclusivity, key components of sustainable community development. Additionally, UPTM incorporates sustainability into its educational programs, equipping future leaders with the knowledge and awareness needed to prioritize sustainable practices in their communities. Through these concerted efforts, UPTM is actively contributing to creating resilient and equitable communities, demonstrating its alignment with SDG 11.

FOOD FOR GELANDANGAN (FFG -NGO)

Universiti Poly-Tech Malaysia (UPTM) joined forces with the NGO Food for Gelandangan (FFG) to distribute food and clothing to the homeless community in Kuala Lumpur on 15 September 2023. This collaborative effort is part of an ongoing initiative to provide immediate relief and support to vulnerable groups struggling with homelessness. A total of 33 students, along with lecturers, collaborated with members of the FFG in carrying out the CSR program: Unity Through Giving, aimed at assisting and supporting the homeless and urban poor in Jalan Belia and Jalan Silang, Kuala Lumpur.

The poster features the UPTM and FFG logos at the top. The main title is "UNITY THROUGH GIVING" in large, bold letters, followed by "KOLABORASI FFG X UPTM" and "PROGRAM KHIDMAT MASYARAKAT: MPU 3422 SECTION 14". It includes a "DONATE HERE" section with a QR code and Bank Islam details: "BANK ISLAM 08095020196141 ENCIK MUHAMMAD HAFIZ FITRI BIN MOHD FADZLI". The event date and location are "15 SEPT 2023, FRIDAY" and "KUALA LUMPUR". A list of community needs includes "KEPERLUAN MAKANAN", "KEPERLUAN MANDI", and "KEPERLUAN BAYI". The bottom of the poster shows two black and white photographs: one of people receiving aid and another of a group of children sitting on the ground. Social media handles for @foodforgelandangan and @CSRsection14 are listed at the bottom.

Volunteers from both UPTM and FFG come together to serve meals and hand out essential clothing items to individuals facing difficult living conditions on the streets. The initiative aims not only to alleviate hunger but also to offer warmth and dignity through clothing donations, emphasizing care and solidarity with the homeless population.

TALK ON MENTAL HEALTH ISSUE

Talk on Mental Health Issues is closely related to Sustainable Development Goal 11 (SDG 11), which aims to create inclusive, safe, resilient, and sustainable communities. By promoting mental well-being, these discussions foster a supportive environment where individuals can express concerns and seek help, thus contributing to community resilience. The talk creates safe spaces for open dialogue, helping to reduce the stigma and discrimination associated with mental health challenges. Ultimately, integrating mental health discussions into community initiatives reflects UPTM's commitment to a holistic approach to sustainability, recognizing the interconnectedness of physical, social, and mental well-being in building inclusive and resilient environments.

On 23rd October 2023, at the Level 5 Main Hall of UPTM, the Institute of Professional Studies extended its deepest gratitude to En. Muhammad Nadzreen Bin Ithnin from Pusat Kesihatan Cheras (PKC) for his insightful talk on "Anxiety Ke... Anxiety Disorder?" and to En. Mohd Faisal Abd Jaafar from Dotterra (M) Sdn Bhd. for his enlightening presentation on "Beat The Stress Away". Together, we are building a community that understands and prioritizes mental health. Educational resources can be developed to address the role of mental health in maintaining healthy and productive partnerships, highlighting the human element in global collaborations.

UPTM OPEN CHESS CHAMPIONSHIP 2023

UPTM Open Chess Championship 2023 was organized to encourage the public to utilize the facilities provided by UPTM and to foster a strong bonding system within the community. The championship held on October 7, 2023, at Perpustakaan Al-Khawarizmi, UPTM, with 86 participants in the open category and 44 in the under-12 categories, exemplifies the university's commitment to promoting inclusive and engaging community activities, aligning with Sustainable Development Goal 11 (SDG 11) by fostering social cohesion and providing opportunities for individuals of all ages to participate in recreational events that strengthen community ties and well-being.

12 RESPONSIBLE CONSUMPTION AND PRODUCTION

UPTM's use of LED lighting demonstrates a commitment to Sustainable Development Goal 12 (SDG 12), which focuses on responsible consumption and production patterns. By opting for energy-efficient LED lights, UPTM reduces energy consumption and minimizes its environmental impact, leading to lower greenhouse gas emissions. This initiative reflects responsible resource management and contributes to sustainable practices on campus. Additionally, utilizing LED lighting can lead to cost savings and longer lifespan compared to traditional lighting, further promoting sustainable consumption practices. Overall, UPTM's choice of LED lighting aligns with efforts to enhance sustainability and promote efficient use of resources within the community.

SAFETY AWARENESS: ELECTRICAL SAFETY IN THE WORKPLACE AND AT HOME

On 5 October 2023, Encik Abd Rahman bin Muntawil, a Safety Training Engineer, conducted a training session on "Keselamatan Elektrik di Tempat Kerja dan Rumah" at Dewan Nilam, Level 2, Universiti Poly-Tech Malaysia (UPTM). This training aimed to enhance awareness and knowledge about electrical safety both in the workplace and at home, ensuring participants understand the best practices for preventing electrical hazards.

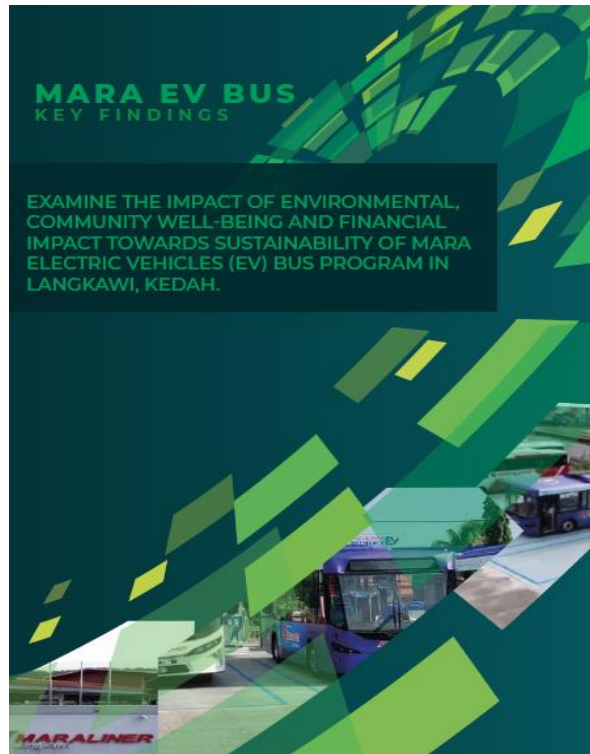

On 21 October 2023, the Faculty of Business, Accounting, and Social Sciences (FBASS) and the Institute of Graduate Studies (IGS) at UPTM organized a Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) program in partnership with the Malaysian and Selangor Forestry Departments at Hutan Simpan Kapar Klang, Selangor. This initiative allowed UPTM staff to cultivate a spirit of volunteerism and teamwork focused on the conservation and restoration of mangrove forests. Mangrove forests are essential in combating climate change, as they serve as carbon sinks, absorbing carbon dioxide from the atmosphere. By participating in the conservation of these vital ecosystems, UPTM not only contributes to environmental sustainability but also raises awareness about the importance of protecting natural resources in the fight against climate change. This initiative exemplifies a proactive approach to climate action by encouraging community involvement in environmental stewardship and promoting practices that support a healthier planet.

PEMULIHAN EKOSISTEM PAYA BAKAU

MARA EV BUS

The primary objective of this research paper is to examine the environmental impact, community well-being, financial aspects, and sustainability of the Electric Vehicle (EV) Bus Program, with Universiti Poly-Tech Malaysia (UPTM) directly involved in the study. The research evaluates four critical factors: sustainability, environmental impact, community well-being, and financial viability. The researcher collected 117 questionnaires that were deemed useful for analysis. The study discovered a positive and robust correlation between sustainability considerations and environmental impact. Additionally, the research revealed a strong link between community well-being and sustainability. There is also a strong correlation between sustainability and financial aspects. These results offer valuable insights into the essential variables and emphasize the significance of ensuring the sustainability of the Electric Vehicles (EV) Bus Program, highlighting UPTM's commitment to promoting sustainable transportation solutions and contributing to environmental stewardship.

In alignment with SDG 14 (Life Below Water), students from Universiti Poly-Tech Malaysia (UPTM) contribute to Paya Indah Wetlands (PIW)'s mission through various activities focused on protecting aquatic ecosystems and raising awareness about marine and freshwater conservation. These activities include educational campaigns on the importance of wetland biodiversity, water quality monitoring projects, and participation in ecotourism programs that emphasize sustainable practices. Through these efforts, UPTM students play an active role in preserving aquatic life and promoting the sustainable use of freshwater resources in Malaysia's wetland areas.

PAYA INDAH WETLANDS

PIW managed by the Department of Wildlife and National Parks of Peninsular Malaysia (PERHILITAN), is located in Mukim Tanjung Dua Belas, Kuala Langat District, Selangor, specifically at lot numbers 4827 and 3974. On February 17, 1998, an area covering 450.76 hectares (1,113.87 acres) was designated as a Wetlands Reserve under Sub-Section 62(1) of the National Land Code (Act 56). The primary objectives for establishing PIW include the conservation of wildlife and biodiversity, fostering recreation and ecotourism, protecting peat swamp forests and wetland ecosystems, and promoting research, education, and public awareness.

Among the activities conducted by UPTM students at Paya Indah Wetlands are feeding the saltwater crocodile (Crocodylus porosus), tortoises, Malayan porcupines, and lesser mouse-deer. These activities aim to enhance students' understanding of wildlife care and conservation, as well as to help them appreciate the importance of freshwater ecosystems and the ways to maintain biodiversity balance.

UPTM students are actively and directly involved in supporting SDG 15, Life on Land, by participating in activities aimed at conserving terrestrial ecosystems and protecting biodiversity. Through hands-on experiences, they gain valuable insights into ecosystem management and the importance of sustaining diverse species on land. These initiatives allow students to contribute meaningfully to environmental conservation while promoting sustainable practices that benefit local and global ecosystems.

TAMAN BOTANI NEGARA SHAH ALAM

On 11 October 2023, UPTM students visited Taman Botani Negara Shah Alam (TBNSA) for a tree-planting and park-cleaning activity. This botanical garden operates under the Ministry of Agriculture and Food Security Malaysia (MOA) and is located in Section U11, Shah Alam, Selangor. Covering an area of 817 hectares, it is among the largest botanical gardens in the world. TBNSA serves as a center for flora and fauna conservation in Malaysia, hosting 422 species of flora. Of these, 31 species are endemic to Peninsular Malaysia, while another 20 species are listed as endangered, highlighting the garden's crucial role in preserving biodiversity.

ZOO NEGARA

On 3 October 2023, UPTM students visited Zoo Negara to carry out cleaning tasks, feed the animals, and learn about the specific needs of the animals housed there. This experience provided students with hands-on knowledge in animal care and fostered a deeper understanding of wildlife conservation, directly supporting SDG 15, Life on Land. Through this activity, students contributed to preserving biodiversity by learning practical ways to care for and protect terrestrial species in a controlled environment, aligning with global efforts to sustain and protect life on land.

Zoo Negara Malaysia is managed by the Malaysian Zoological Society, a non-governmental organization established to create the first local zoo for Malaysians. Zoo Negara was officially opened on 14th November 1963 and has matured into a well-known zoo all around the world. We have a total of over 3575 specimens from 305 species of mammals, birds, reptiles, amphibians and fish.

Zoo Negara covers 110 acres of land which is situated only 5km from the city of Kuala Lumpur. Over the years, the zoo has transformed itself to an open concept zoo with over 90% of its animals being kept in spacious exhibits with landscape befitting its nature. We are working in making sure that the old zoo concept is changed entirely.

ngan pencapaian UPTM memandangkan proses menaik taraf status dari kolej ke universiti bukan perkara yang mudah dan mengambil masa

UPTM actively supports SDG 16, which focuses on promoting peace, justice, and building strong institutions, through a variety of educational initiatives, community projects, and ethical policies. Here are several ways UPTM contributes to this goal:

- Educational Programs on Governance and Ethics: UPTM incorporates courses on ethics, governance, and law into its curriculum, providing students with a foundation in justice, transparency, and accountability. By educating future professionals on the importance of ethical practices, the university encourages the development of responsible citizens and leaders who uphold principles of fairness and integrity in their future careers.
- Community Engagement and Social Responsibility Projects: UPTM students participate in community outreach projects that focus on social justice and support for marginalized groups. Through these efforts, students develop a strong sense of social responsibility and contribute to building more just and inclusive communities.

3. Campus Policies Supporting Transparency and Accountability: UPTM upholds policies that emphasize transparency, anti-corruption practices, and inclusive governance within the institution. By maintaining clear and accountable systems for academic processes, student evaluations, and administrative decision-making, UPTM sets a model for strong institutional governance. These practices encourage trust and fairness, aligning with the values of SDG 16.

4. Collaborations with Law Enforcement and Legal Institutions: UPTM collaborates with legal bodies and law enforcement agencies to organize talks, workshops, and awareness programs. These events educate students and staff on legal rights, ethical behavior, and civic duties, strengthening their understanding of the rule of law and justice.

Through these initiatives, UPTM demonstrates a commitment to promoting peace, justice, and strong institutions both within the university and in the broader community, contributing meaningfully toward SDG 16.

PELAN TINDAKAN MARA GREEN INNOVATION 2030

Pelan Tindakan MARA Green Innovation 2030 was held at the Bayview Hotel Langkawi from 13 to 15 October 2023. It was a comprehensive brainstorming session aimed at developing an inclusive action plan for Majlis Amanah Rakyat (MARA). The primary objective of this initiative is to create a holistic Green Mobility Hub ecosystem infrastructure in Langkawi, Kedah.

Associate Professor Ts. Dr. Zahrah Yahya (Acting Vice Chancellor and Deputy Vice Chancellor Academic Acting Vice Chancellor), Associate Professor Dr. Muhamad Nizam bin Jali (Deputy Vice Chancellor of Research & Innovation), Dr. Mariani Binti Mohd Dahlan (Senior Lecturer Faculty of Computing and Multimedia) and Dr. Zaharah Binti Zainal Abidin (Senior Lecturer Faculty Business, Accounting and Science Social from Universiti Poly-Tech Malaysia (UPTM)) are among the participants who involved in the event. This involvement aligns with the principles of SDG 17, "Partnership for the Goals," as it emphasizes the importance of collaboration between academic institutions and other stakeholders to achieve sustainable development objectives. Through partnerships like these, UPTM contributes to fostering innovation and building capacities that support the broader goals of sustainability and global development.

In addition to its role in development, this action plan will also act as a vital document for MARA's request for funding from the Economic Planning Unit (EPU). By securing the necessary allocation, MARA aims to pioneer innovative, eco-friendly mobility solutions that align with Malaysia's broader goals for sustainability and technological advancement by the year 2030.

This three-day workshop brought together key stakeholders, including experts, policymakers, and industry leaders, to collaboratively design the blueprint for a greener future in the region.

KAJIAN KEBERKESANAN PROGRAM SKIM PEMBIAYAAN EKONOMI DESA (SPED)

Universiti Poly-Tech Malaysia (UPTM) conducted a study "Kajian Keberkesanan Program Skim Pembiayaan Ekonomi Desa (SPED)." The study was led by Associate Professor Dr. Muhammad Nizam bin Jali, Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research & Innovation), with Rural Capital Berhad (RCB) as the primary contributor to its implementation. Another member of UPTM is Dr. Nan Zakiah binti Megat Ibrahim, a lecturer at the Faculty of Business, Accounting, and Social Sciences (FBASS) also involved and played a key role in ensuring the success of this collaboration.

The Skim Pembiayaan Ekonomi Desa (SPED) is a rural financing program initiated by the Ministry of Rural and Regional Development (KKDW) in 2001. The main objectives of SPED include: i) Developing Bumiputera rural entrepreneurs across all viable economic sectors permitted by law; ii) Encouraging the participation and development of Bumiputera entrepreneurs to create job opportunities, increase income, and establish sustainable businesses for rural communities; iii) Advancing high-potential economic sectors in rural areas.

In 2023, the Ministry of Rural and Regional Development (KKDW), through Rural Capital Berhad (RCB), successfully disbursed business loan funds to 150 small and medium entrepreneurs in rural areas throughout Malaysia. The SPED financing fund aims to assist in improving and expanding the businesses they are engaged in. With an allocation of RM 18,797,000, RCB distributed loan funds to five (5) MAIN business sectors, namely: Services, Manufacturing, Retail, Production, Tourism, and Information Technology.

A study on the effectiveness of the SPED financing program by RCB was conducted by Universiti Poly-Tech Malaysia, starting from November 1, 2023, to April 30, 2024. The study's respondents comprised 30 entrepreneurs who received SPED financing of RM 80,000.00 and above as the sample for the research.

But beyond the immediate happiness, this program served as a powerful catalyst for change, embedding the principles of sustainable development into the fabric of our wider community.

Ultimately, our CSR program on 9 December was a testament to the power of education and collaboration in driving sustainable development. It showed that when we invest in our communities and educate them about the importance of the SDGs, we lay the groundwork for a future where these goals are not just aspirations but lived experiences for everyone.

OUR JOURNEY

UNIVERSITI POLY-TECH MALAYSIA (UPTM) formerly known as Kolej Universiti Poly-Tech MARA (KUPTM) Kuala Lumpur is located in Taman Shamelin Perkasa, Cheras, Kuala Lumpur. The journey started with the establishment of Maktab Sains MARA (MSM) Kuala Lumpur on 15 December 1987. A-Level was the sole education programme conducted in the early days of its establishment. On 19 July 1988, an agreement was made with Northern Consortium United Kingdom (NCUK), allowing students from MSM Kuala Lumpur to pursue their studies to 12 Universities and Polytechnics in the United Kingdom.

To expand the strategic education linkages, an agreement with British Consortium of Higher Education in Malaysia (BCHEM) was signed on 21 September 1994 to enable collaboration with 19 top Universities in the United Kingdom. Upon changing its name to Kolej Yayasan Pelajaran MARA (KYPM) Kuala Lumpur, focus has been shifted towards local education collaboration with Matriculation Colleges governed by Ministry of Education Malaysia, as well as several other public universities.

Going further, KYPM Kuala Lumpur continues to engage and establish collaboration with institution by teaming up with Accounting and Business College, Ireland, Thomson Rivers University, Canada, and Coventry University, United Kingdom. On 1 September 2003, Yayasan Pelajaran MARA (YPM) management was taken over by Kolej Poly-Tech MARA Sdn. Bhd. As the main campus, it was known as Kolej Poly-Tech MARA (KPTM) Kuala Lumpur. On 15 October 2015, KPTM Kuala Lumpur was upgraded to the status of university-college and therefore known as Kolej Universiti Poly-Tech MARA (KUPTM) Kuala Lumpur. On 6 January 2023, KUPTM was upgraded to a full-fledged university known as UNIVERSITI POLY-TECH MALAYSIA.
